

Norristown Loses to Narberth by 1 Run

Humphries' Second Hit of the Game, a Long Single, Scores Mulligan.

TWENTY-SECOND WIN

By John Uberti.

A long, soaring drive into right-field by Harvey Humphries, Narberth's third baseman, coming in the sixth inning of the game after five innings of scoreless playing, turned in the twenty-second victory of the season in independent ball against the Norristown Club on Wednesday evening. The score was 1-0.

Howard Graham was in top form for this game and came through with his ninth triumph of the year, which just equals his long string of defeats. Norristown found Graham for only a single hit during the first five frames in which time the best they could do was place sixteen men on the lanes, or one more than any pitcher can possibly allow. The visitors were completely baffled by the offerings of Graham, nine alien batsmen indicating this fact quite well by surrendering on strikes. Only two more bingles were made off the diminutive ace before the game was called in the eighth inning on account of darkness.

Narberth went along hanging goose-eggs upon the scoreboard but in the

Warm Again

Consistently high temperatures for the week of August 26th to September 1st, inclusive, are reported by U. S. Co-operative Weather Observer for the Main Line, Charles Decker. The high-low readings for the week are: Tuesday, 26th, 83-57; Wednesday, 84-60; Thursday, 86-55; Friday, 88-60; Saturday, 87-65; Sunday, 87-62; Monday (Labor Day) 87-68.

Paoli and Narberth to Battle For League Flag

By defeating Bryn Mawr on Labor Day, Paoli clinched the Main Line League title for the second half season and thereby earned the right to meet Narberth, winner of the first half in a playoff for the season's championship.

The championship series, to be the best out of three games, will commence on Saturday, September 13. In all probability the first game will be played on the Narberth field.

If Narberth wins the series it will make the third consecutive league championship for the borough nine. During the second half of this season the positions have been reversed with Narberth occupying the next to the bottom position and Paoli, cellar occupant at the conclusion of the first half, on top of the pack.

School Bells Monday

The Narberth Public School will re-open for the Fall term Monday morning at 8:40 A. M. Only a half-day session is scheduled for Monday. A teachers' meeting will take place in the afternoon. On Tuesday regular full-day sessions will commence, with lunch served at the school.

Township Schools to Open September 8th

All Lower Merion Public Schools will open with regular classes Monday, September 8, Superintendent S. E. Downs stated yesterday. There will be a half-day session on Monday and full schedule during the remainder of the week.

Those who desire to enter the Junior and Senior High Schools must present their credentials to Superintendent Downs at his office in the Senior High School Building.

Kindergartens will be opened for the first time in all of the elementary buildings except Bala and Merion Square. Kindergarten pupils from Bala may enroll in the Cynwyd School and those from Gladwyne at Bryn Mawr or Ardmore Avenue. Children who will be four years of age before October 1 may be admitted to the kindergartens during the month of September but not later.

Those who will be six prior to April 1 may be assigned to first grade if they are sufficiently mature to undertake that work successfully.

The transportation schedule during the first week of school will be similar to that of last year.

Hold Bake Sale Today

The ladies of the Narberth Methodist Church will hold a sale of home-baked goods today on Harry Wall's lawn, corner of Haverford and Forest Avenues, from 9:30 to 4:30. The proceeds will go toward furnishing the new church parlor.

Rotarians Play Tom Thumb

Fourteen members of the Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Rotary Club competed in a Tom Thumb golf tournament staged for them by the City Line Golf Club Tuesday. Frank H. Seely, Jr., and Dr. R. C. Hoffman tied with 46 strokes for first place, and the Service Company proprietor won a two-hole playoff for the prize—a credit of five dollars for merchandise. Dr. Hoffman was awarded a five-dollar book of golf tickets. Ralph S. Dunne with 53 strokes was third. With a hole-in-one on the difficult eighteenth hole, he won a five-dollar book of tickets offered by the golf club for anyone who can accomplish the feat. J. Bedford Wooley won the booby prize with a score of—well, a score.

The prizes were put up jointly by the Rotary Club and the golf club.

Narberth Loses to Berwyn 5-3, But Comes Back Strong to Trounce Dunkirk 12-1.

BREAK HITTING RECORD

By John Uberti.

Narberth divided the honors in Labor Day's double-header, losing the morning fray to the tailenders from Berwyn, 5 to 3, and sinking Dunkirk, aspirant for title honors, in the afternoon by virtue of a heavy hitting attack, 12 to 1. By outpointing Bryn Mawr, 13 to 12, in an afternoon game Monday, Paoli clinched the second half championship.

Having been eliminated from the cup race last Saturday, Narberth was fighting fiercely in the afternoon engagement with a tough foe in order to avoid the tail-end position, a location shunned by all, even the Paoli Club, whose players are alleged to be able to see in the dark due to their long residence in the cellar position during the first half series. There remains one more league game to be played before Narberth, champions of the first half, and Paoli, challengers and leaders of the second half, will resume hostilities in a battle for the title.

In the present unit of the Main Line League, Narberth undoubtedly has

Football Practice Underway at Lower Merion

By Tommy Macklin.

Lower Merion High School is officially in session so far as football is concerned for Coach Adam has had five full teams in action on the practice field every afternoon since Tuesday.

Things do not look so rosy right now for the Maroon football season, but the boys from Lower Merion have a way of coming through in a pinch, and I feel safe in predicting a successful year for Adam and his boys. As things look now there is only one man on the field that stands out as a real player, and that is Captain John Pennypacker. The rangy end who played so well last season has the experience and stamina to lead his mates to victory when the going is troublesome or smooth.

Along with Pennypacker are four other lettermen. James Turner, Horace Latta, Seaver Rose and Harry Frazier won their laurels last year and it is likely all of them will see plenty of action this season.

The brightest prospects at the present for places on the team are Hugh Wynn at end, Dominic Polilli, husky tackle from last year's Junior High team; Herb Thomas, backfield candidate, and Lachman Reinhart, a centre.

Whatever the prospects are now, we will know more about them after the ides of October.

Fine Films Feature Third Anniversary of Egyptian

Features of unusual excellence are offered by the Egyptian Theatre, Cynwyd, this month, as part of its policy of giving the best shows obtainable to Main Line entertainment-seekers. This Friday and Saturday, Norma Shearer's great comedy-drama, "Let Us Be Gay," is featured, with Marie Dressler in the cast of stars. "Below Zero," a new Laurel and Hardy comedy, is an accompanying attraction.

Celebrating its third anniversary, the Egyptian next week offers Joan Crawford, Anita Page and Dorothy Sebastian in "Our Blushing Brides" on Monday and Tuesday; Ruth Chatterton and her husband, Ralph Forbes, in "The Lady of Scandal" on Wednesday and Thursday; and Lon Chaney in his first and last "talkie" and his greatest picture—"The Unholy Three"—on Friday and Saturday.

"Let Us Be Gay" is an amusing tale of a woman who is requested to "vamp" a Mr. Brown in order to prevent him from marrying a charming but entirely unsophisticated debutante. She succeeds, despite or perhaps due to the fact that Mr. Brown happens to be her former husband.

In "Our Blushing Brides," three girls who work in the same department store have their romances with Robert Montgomery, Raymond Hackett and John Miljan.

"The Lady of Scandal" concerns the amusing situations which result when a music-hall actress consents to marry the son of a British peer, against the wishes of both families. The picture is somewhat in the vein of "The Last of Mrs. Cheyney," inasmuch as it is an English drawing room comedy dependent for much of its entertainment value on brilliant characterizations and clever dialogue.

Amazing voice control was exercised by the screen's most remarkable actor, Lon Chaney, in "The Unholy Three," his first and last talking picture. He impersonated an old woman, proprietress of a bird shop; he acted as a ventriloquist with amusing effects, including singing; and he acted a straight role as "Echo," the brains of the trio of crooks around which the plot centers. Also in the cast are Ivan Linow, a giant; Harry Earles, a midget; Elliott Nugent, Lila Lee, Clarence Burton, John Miljan and Crawford Kent, and some circus side-show performers.

Coming to the Egyptian this month are Charles Bickford in "The Sea Bat," Jack Oakie in "The Social Lion," William Haines in "Way Out West," Greta Garbo in "Romance," Ann Harding in "Holiday," Wallace Beery and Chester Morris in "The Big House," and Admiral Byrd's thrilling Antarctic expedition, scheduled for October 6 and 7.

Tom Thumb Golf Notes

Last Friday F. C. Wells spun a 35 on the City Line Golf Club's Tom Thumb course, for the course's lowest score to date. Par is 42. Mr. Wells made the first nine holes in 20 and the second in 15, including some holes-in-one.

A mixed twosome tournament, scheduled for Wednesday of last week, was washed out that evening and held on Thursday. Miss Phyllis Bowes, with a 45, and John G. Turner with a 44, won first prize with a combined score of 89. Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Betelheim, with 43 and 47 strokes respectively, for a total of 90, were second. Third were Miss Maylene Edwards, with a 53, and Mr. F. P. Hood, Jr., with a 39, for a total of 92.

First prize was $10 merchandise credit at Wanamaker's for each member of the twosome; second was two $5 Wanamaker credits, and third was two $5 golfing tickets.

Qualifying rounds are now being played at the City Line Golf Club for an open tournament to be held soon, and also for a Philadelphia competition whose winners will be sent, all expenses paid, to the national tournament at Lookout Mountain, Chattanooga, Tenn., October 20 to 22.

Nancy Carroll and Clara Bow Are Narberth Features

"Rough Romance," a Movietone drama of the Northwest timber lands, is being featured at the Narberth Theatre this Friday and Saturday. George O'Brien and Helen Chandler have the leading roles. The plot is as fresh and brisk and refreshing as the winds that sweep the lumber country, and the film is interspersed with some excellent photographic "shots" of the snow-capped forest, the swirling rapids, and the huge logs being shot down the river to the mills. "Rough Romance" is a picture that has that happy combination of a fine story, superb cast, and settings in an unusual locale that appeals to all types of movie-goers.

The Narberth Theatre will show, on Monday and Tuesday, Nancy Carroll in "The Devil's Holiday." In the production Nancy plays the role of a big city manicurist with a happy inclination for men with short brains and long bank-rolls. Her performance of "Hallie Hobart" has won the acclaim of critics everywhere and permits her to play her first really dramatic part since her debut in the audible pictures. The picture was written and produced by Edmund Goulding, who wrote and produced "The Trespasser." "Devil's Holiday" has the same ingredients, the same uncannily real and gripping way of putting the plot over and the same type of down-to-earth dramatic story. In the supporting cast are Philip Holmes, Hobart Bosworth, Ned Sparks, and James Kirkwood. While the old story of Satan finding work for idle hands may be true, even he must take a holiday once in a while—sometimes he spends it in love—and then!!!

Clara Bow, the big "IT" girl with the fiery tresses, will be the attraction on Wednesday and Thursday in her new opus, "True To The Navy." Clara gives her usual superlative performance as the sweetheart of the Pacific fleet aided by the ever comical Harry Green and Fredric March and Rex Bell. Fredric as Gunner McCoy, ace marksman of the "Mississippi," is also a sharpshooter with the women, but Kid Cupid shows him some tricks at target-hitting that Uncle Sam never instructed his Middles. And the Clara Bow fans will enjoy this as her best picture. She is slim, lithe, appealing, vivacious, energetic, peppy, beautiful and charming.

The management of the Narberth Theatre is happy to announce that consistent with its policy to give the patrons only the very best productions from the studios, it has booked "Common Clay" to be shown shortly after the conclusion of its phenomenal run at the Fox Theatre. "Common Clay" has proved to be a colossal box-office attraction only because it contains such human appeal, such masterly acting by Constance Bennett and Lew Ayres, the "Paul" of "All Quiet on the Western Front," and such moving realism. It has found a place in the hearts of the public such as no other picture since "The Birth of a Nation."

Fifty Out For L. M. Junior High Eleven

Coach Richard Mattis and his assistants began the football season's practice for the Junior High squad on Wednesday afternoon with about fifty boys out for the initial warming-up session.

The situation in the Junior High is similar to the one in Senior High School insofar as lettermen are concerned. About five experienced boys are back this season, the others having graduated to the Senior High.

A heavy schedule has been arranged for the Orange and Black team with four or five home games on the list, all to be played on Friday afternoons.

FORE AND AFT

Audiences who saw the Hedgerow Theatre's production of "Ten Nights in a Barroom" a few years ago may witness the revival of another melodrama of the same vintage when Virginia Farmer's dramatization of Stephen Leacock's "Cast Up by the Sea" makes its reappearance in Rose Valley on next Saturday night. This latest addition to the recent Hedgerow Saturday night openings is a travesty of the serious drama of the 1880's, when up-stage heroines were applauded upon entrance and "stopped the show" to greet the house: when villains were hissed and when "specialties" were performed by members of the casts between acts. This production, enhanced by new scenery designed and executed by Takashi Ohta, reproduces all the details of the ten-twenty-three theatres of the past and provides a rollicking good time to the spectators.

The Irish comedy of J. M. Synge, "The Playboy of the Western World," will be given on Tuesday night, when the week begins for this versatile company. "Inheritors," Susan Glaspell's drama of American life and education, will be played on Wednesday night with Frances Torchiana in the role of "Madeleine," first created by Ann Harding under Mr. Deeter's direction. Chiarelli's sparkling farce, "The Mask and the Face," with Kay Roma and Jasper Deeter as the principals, is Thursday night's show.

The Main Line School of Music opens its seventh season under the same directors as last season, Florence Leonard, Adolph Vogel and Louisa Hopkins.

Miss Leonard, director of the piano department also, is known not only in Philadelphia, but throughout the country as well for her contributions to piano teaching, especially in connection with "The Etude."

During the past two seasons she has secured valuable advice for students in interviews with such famous artists as George Copeland, Walter Gieseking, Elly Ney, Harold Samuel and Jose Iturbi.

Because of her wide knowledge of methods and teachers she has been selected by the editor of "The Etude" to prepare a series of papers on the history of pianoforte methods. These will appear during the coming season.

One of her most valuable services to piano teaching has been, in collaboration with Louisa Hopkins, to adapt to the child and beginner the most modern ideas in the study of piano technique.

On Monday evening, September 15, Philadelphia playgoers will witness for the first since his aeroplane accident the return of the one and only Fred Stone, in his new musical extravaganza, "Ripples," which Charles Dillingham is presenting at the Garrick Theatre.

This production brings out a new and better Fred Stone, with a bagful of new tricks. Dorothy Stone is co-starred in this production, which also marks the stage debut of Paula Stone, who bids fair to rival the other Stones for popular acclaim. The big list of names does not stop there, for we find the familiar names of Andrew Tombes, Billy Taylor, Maude Eburns, Charles Mast, Peggy Bancroft, William Selery, Cynthia Foley, Charles Collins, William Kerschell, Gertrude Clemens, Paul Paulus, a troupe of midgets, John Tiller's sensational dancing girls, and many others to say nothing of a bevy of beautiful girls as only Dillingham can provide.

"Ripples" was written by William Anthony McGuire, the master playwright, who also is responsible for the staging of this production. It is a modern story of the "Rip Van Winkle." The music and lyrics are by Irving Caesar, Oscar Levant, Albert Sirmay and Graham John. William Holbrook staged the dances and ensembles. The beautiful scenery by Josef Urban sets the production in a magnificent jewel bob that will not be easily forgotten.

The engagement is for two weeks.

Grievances

The editor has received a prodding this week on subjects which are generally annoying to suburban dwellers. These are unnecessarily loud radios, children who run wild over the neighborhood without regard for the rights and peace of others, freight trains on the Main Line, early milk wagons, late parties which break up in the wee hours, automobiles, and garbage trucks. To this catalog we add a pet grievance of our own, weeds, especially ragweed. (As may be inferred the editor is a hay feverite.)

Redress for loud radios may be gotten through the police on the grounds of a nuisance. Most people of the community, however, do not feel like antagonizing their neighbors by lodging a formal complaint. The matter is one which can best be alleviated by simply taking thought and realizing that one can hear a program just as well with the machine tuned down. Often as not offenders probably do not realize that their loud-speaking radios are a source of vexation to their neighbors. As is suggested in an answer to a query on this subject published elsewhere in this issue, a good test is to adjourn to the neighbors' sidewalk and see if one's radio is still audible. If so it is usually turned on too loud.

Rambunctious children are a problem for their parents to cope with. While play is essential, it may be so arranged that it is not carried on all over a neighborhood and at the expense of the peace and quiet of neighbors.

Little can be done about the freights which puff up and down the Main Line day and night, until the railroad can be persuaded to use electric locomotives exclusively, and they will not do so unless it is economically feasible. This nuisance will continue unabated. The only remedy at present is to move far enough away from the railroad.

The companies serving milk to the Main Line section can be persuaded that later-in-the-day deliveries are to their advantage. Perhaps a boycott of all dealers insisting on waking up the suburbs would do the trick, but in the meantime milk must be had.

Automobiles, particularly those put to bed when most of the neighbors are asleep, are granted to be a high grade nuisance. But one's comings and goings cannot be restricted in this land of the free, so it is one of those things which just have to be put up with.

It would seem that the collection of garbage by the Township and Borough authorities could be regulated so that trucks would not begin banging about the streets until most people are about. There is no reason why this work should start before 7:30 in the morning.

Many of the noises and annoyances mentioned above can be easily remedied by a little thoughtfulness. Consideration for one's neighbors will do much to make life in the suburbs pleasanter for everyone.

Safety For Children

With the opening of schools next week, the necessity for careful driving will be greatly increased by virtue of the greater number of children on the streets.

Thoughtful motorists will keep in mind the fact that many little ones, five and six years old, will be leaving the protection of their homes and parents for the first time, to venture out on the streets "on their own." They are, of course, ignorant of the dangers of the street. Even the older children are likely to be careless for a while.

Perhaps the greatest hazard confronting motorists in the vicinity of a school is the possibility that a child will dart into the street from between parked cars. Careful drivers should drive under those conditions at a speed which will enable them to stop within a few feet. The driving public can co-operate by complying with the schoolboy patrols. The members of these patrols are distinguished by arm-bands.

Parents of pupils can co-operate by instructing their children to cross streets at intersections only, and to be sure to look both ways before crossing. Safety instruction on the part of the parents is an aid to the instructions received in the classroom.

With the co-operation of motorists, parents and teachers, progress will be made in making the streets safe for children and for everybody.

The Editor's Spree Continues

The Biron Literary Societee will meet next wednesday at Mis Smiths. (Ed. Note—This item was written by the President of the Literary Society, and was received at the office of the Deadwood Dust in an envelope which had no stamp upon it. Come again, Mrs. Smith. It costs us money, but we like it.)

Charles Hayberry has announced that he will run for county committeeman this fall. Yeh, and he'll run for his life this fall too if the constable is ever able to locate him.

Mr. Roswell Lugson motored to Ossining last week. He will probably stay there for three years.

Mrs. J. Whilters enjoyed a bridge last Tuesday evening. Doc Sawbone, well-known and popular Main street dentist, tells us that Mrs. Whilters has a whole mouthful of other bridges which she never enjoys.

The Deadwood A. C. Football Team will play all its games on Sundays this year. Sunday is the only day when the players are able to get away from their studies at the University of Penn and Rutgers.

The National Broadcasting Company may be interested to learn that the reverse side of their finely printed programs is frequently used as copy paper by the staff of the Deadwood Dust.

Talkie equipment will be installed in the Strand Theatre at an early date. No more subtitles for Mrs. Gablong to read out loud!

Miniature golf courses are being constructed by Ed Wesley, Tom Edgar, Willie Shultz, Fred Williams, Tom Moore and Charley Fillers.

Four miniature golf courses went bankrupt in Deadwood last week.

The Deadwood National Bank recently lent large sums of money to Ed Wesley, Tom Edgar, Willie Schultz, Fred Williams, Tom Moore and Charley Fillers.

The Deadwood Dust has recently withdrawn all its dollars (all three of them, in fact) from the Deadwood National Bank.

A delightful shower was given Saturday evening for Miss Susie Mangani. She probably needed it.

If the Republican party doesn't hurry up and pay its just debts, there will be a democratic paper in Deadwood this fall.

We are informed that Mr. William Foswell intends to open a modern funeral parlor in Deadwood in the near future. His many friends wish Bill success in his new undertaking.

There will be an old-fashioned hayseed party at Grange Hall next Thursday night. Phil Spriggins, Dod Harvey and other leading hayseeds are expected to attend.

Bob Kendrick has given up his endorsing career. For decades he has made a regular habit of endorsing everything from platforms and candidates to tobaccos. Two months ago he endorsed Fred Heldrick's thirty-day note at the bank. Bob Kendrick, we repeat, has given up his endorsing career.

If the policeman who tagged an old Chevrolet in front of the Home Delicatessen and Hardware Store on Main Street last evening will call at the offices of the Deadwood Dust, he may possibly be able to add a few words to his vocabulary. And when Christmas comes, there will be no cigar for him, the dirty dog. And, furthermore, the next time that he makes an arrest, we shall see to it that his name, if mentioned at all, will be spelled decidedly incorrectly. People that don't scratch our back can't expect to have us scratch theirs.

Next Friday night Hedgerow's sixth new play of the season, "Limelight," is scheduled, with the cast which includes Kay Roma, Ferd Nofer, William Price, Marshall Gatchell, Jesse Oser and Cele McLaughlin. Narberth Shut Out By Paoli Saturday

Hagey Holds Davismen to Six
Scattered Hits in 8-0 Defeat.

REYNOLDS LOSES THIRD

By John Uberti

Paoli kept its lead intact in the race for the second-half championship of the Main Line League on Saturday when Narberth, first-half champions, were shut out by an eight-run splurge.

Inspired by a determination to maintain the lead which has been constantly jeopardized by three closely pursuing foes of the circuit, the Paoli Club kept hammering the heavens of Bill Reynolds with unyielding persistence despite the fact that they could easily have coasted in to victory atop their one run tally countered at the start of the game. But Manager Charley Madden was taking no unnecessary chances.

Seven singles, a pair of doubles and a home run were the main ingredients that went to concoct Paoli's sound victory over the Davismen. On the defense the challengers were supreme in their executions as they continually deprived the Boroughites of opportunities to offset their gigantic lead. Unparalleled double plays by Paoli's Big Three, known as the Verna-to-Henry-to-Potter defense, twice ended hostilities in this contest as on each occasion they stirred a ringing flow of applause.

The defeat marked Bill Reynolds' third reverse for the season out of nine engagements in which he has served. Although this is not what may be termed a commendable record, it is the best exhibited by any Narberth pitcher. Joe McKee, who shows five victories against two losses, is Reynolds' nearest rival, but the remainder of the hurlers of the Borough nine have nothing better to boast of than a fifty-fifty record on the mound.

But the saddest tale we have to tell is the standing of the Narberth Club in the league. For the first time since 1927, the Davismen have shown a tendency to recede below the .200 mark for one-half season performances and below .500 for an annual showing. Following two second years in which they have won the championship of the Main Line League by snaring both halves of the circuit, "Gene" Davis' boys now display a backward trend and it is obvious that the end of the current half will find the Davismen in a most unaccustomed position in the Main Line League. For the whole year Narberth has won seven tilts in the league and have lost eight for an unfavorable return of .467.

In opposition to Reynolds, Bill Hagey, a master of the Philadelphia diamonds, was not what we would care to write home about. Bill has only the fine support of his companions to be thankful for, since it was only the turbulent offensive tactics of his pals against the varied offerings of his mound rival that carried him to the finish unscarred. The contrast of the pitching records for the day is a subject of timely interest and which tells a tale of its own as to the supreme pitcher of the game. By applying a variety of tricks to his heaves, Reynolds came through with five strikeouts while three alien batsmen worked him for passes. Hagey, on the other hand, issued five passes and felled only three on strikes. But an overwhelming and extremely productive day with the mace backed by the superb field-

Labor Capital Banking

On Monday we celebrated Labor Day. What is labor? How does it differ from Capital? Labor produces, and by saving, becomes Capital. The intelligent use of banking makes a capitalist of the thrifty laborer; a merchant of the smallest shopkeeper.

The importance of a strong, conservative bank in the growth of a community and its citizens lies in these facts. Let us work with you.

Cardinals Beat Midgets
For League Championship

In one of the fastest games of the season the Cardinals defeated the Midgets to the tune of 8 to 0 for the Playground League title.

Paul Kane pitched brilliantly for the winners, striking out 13 men and allowing but one scratch hit.

This was the final and deciding game of the season and by winning the Cards captured the silver baseball trophy, which was presented to them through their captain, Bob Wright, by Allan Wetherall, playground director.

Penn to Benefit by Merion Woman's Will

University to Become Ultimate Beneficiary of $300,000 Patchett Estate.

The University of Pennsylvania will become the ultimate beneficiary of a fund of $300,000 under the will of Julia Brill Patchett, late of Merion, which was admitted to probate at Norristown on Tuesday.

Mrs. Patchett devises her own estate valued at $200,000 and also the estate of her late father, G. Martin Brill, over which she was given testamentary disposition by his will, which was admitted to probate on April 5, 1906.

In her will the testatrix places the fund of $300,000 in trust for the life benefit of her sister, Florence Brill, with reversionary interest vested at her death in the University of Pennsylvania.

This money is given to the trustees of the university to administer it in their discretion in one of three different ways.

First, for the erection of a building to be used in connection with the medical department of the university to be known as the "G. Martin Brill Memorial Building."

Second, to use one-half of the fund for the erection of the building and the other half as a trust fund for the maintenance of the building.

Third, to invest the fund and reinvest the income for a period not to exceed ten years after they are in receipt of the fund, until the total accumulations are sufficient to both erect a suitable building and create a fund for the maintenance of the same.

Other bequests are made by the testatrix as follows:

To her husband, H. Powell Patchett, $100,000 in lieu of any legal rights he might have over her real estate.

In trust, $75,000 for the benefit of testatrix's daughter, Jane Powell Patchett, the trust fund to be effective for twenty-one years after her death; after the death of the beneficiary the corpus is to be given in equal shares to her children. If she dies without issue the fund is to be given to the testatrix's sisters in equal shares.

M. Estelle Brill, a sister, $100,000.

G. Martin Watts, a nephew, $10,000.

Stephen J. Simon, a brother-in-law, $25,000, "in appreciation of many kindnesses he has exercised to me during my lifetime," says testatrix.

Sunie Pennebacker and Carolyn C. Currier, friends, $2500 each.

Emma Roller, a cousin, $5000 in trust for life, with reversionary interest vested at her death in the residuary estate.

The residuary estate is given to the sister, Florence Brill, absolutely.

The sister, Florence Brill, and Stephen J. Simons, a brother-in-law, are named executors of the will, which was executed December 20, 1929.

W. F. M. S. to Meet

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Narberth Methodist Episcopal Church will meet on Monday, September 8, at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Samuel MacAdams, 314 Essex Avenue, Narberth. All members and friends are urged to be present at this important meeting.

Widow Is Recipient of

$200,000 Mathers Estate

The will of Frank F. Mathers, late of Wynnewood, admitted to probate at Norristown last Thursday, disposes of an estate valued at $200,000.

Dorothy Brooks Mathers, Janet Mason Mathers and Ruth Barnard Mathers, daughters, are each given $1000.

D. F. Mathers, J. B. Mathers, Lillian M. Boyer and Mary Helen Thompson, brothers and sisters, are each given $500.

The household furnishings are given to the wife, Eliza C., absolutely. The residuary estate is placed in trust for the wife for life, she being given the right to make testamentary disposition of the same at her death. The wife is also named executrix and trustee under the will, which was executed February 19, 1919.

New Low Electric Rates

For Commercial and Retail Power Users

Effective SEPTEMBER 1st

FOLLOWING the recent announcement by Philadelphia Electric Company of reductions in electric rates to commercial customers in the County of Philadelphia, it has been decided to extend similar rate benefits to this type of customer in the area suburban to Philadelphia. A reduction in residence service rates has already been announced for September 1. The commercial rate reduction is effective the same day.

New Commercial Lighting Rate

(Schuylkill, Main Line and Eastern Divisions)

1 1/2^c reduction per kilowatt-hour for the first forty-eight hours of use of load.

1/2^c reduction per kilowatt-hour for all current in excess of ninety-six hours of use of load.

These reductions in rates have been made possible through savings produced by economies of operation as well as a greater volume and diversity of use of electric service. This is but another example of Philadelphia Electric's time-honored policy of sharing with the customer the benefits of operating economies effected by its management.

Old St. David's Church At Radnor to Celebrate 216th Anniversary Sunday

With appropriate services the congregation at historic Old St. David's Church, Radnor, will celebrate its 216th anniversary on Sunday. First collections for the erection of the church were made on September 7, 1714, and the cornerstone laid during May of the next year.

Although the church was begun as a mission in 1713, historians claim an even earlier start in a log church, where barricades were necessary for protection against the Indians.

The first rector of the church was the Rev. John Clubb, of Wales, appointed by the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts, who requested to be sent to Radnor, then a Welsh settlement. At that time the church was not strictly denominational. Some of its ministers came from other Protestant churches than the Episcopal, and among the worshippers were included Methodists, Presbyterians and Lutherans.

Anthony Wayne, grandfather of General Wayne, of Revolutionary fame, who is buried in the cemetery flanking the church, was a vestryman in 1725, and helped erect an outside stairway leading to a gallery which was later partially removed. During the Revolution the church was virtually deserted. Tradition has it that the British soldiery used some of the lead window frames for the manufacture of bullets and even stabled their horses in the structure. It is tradition that Major General Gray used the hollow near the church to assemble his troops before the attack upon General Anthony Wayne at Paoli on the night of September 30, 1777. Sixteen unknown soldiers are also reputed to have been buried in the churchyard after their deaths at the Battle of Brandywine.

William Currie, who was rector of the church when the Revolution began, resigned and returned to his home at the beginning of the war because of his oath of allegiance to the King as an Episcopal clergyman. The treaty of peace absolved him from his oath, and he returned to remain rector until his death in 1787. He is buried in the churchyard under the chancel window.

The Rev. Dr. Crosswell McBee is the present rector; R. Francis Wood, the rector's warden, and Henry P. Conner, accounting warden.

The vestry is composed of William Paul Morris, secretary; Edward F. Beale, George L. Harrison, Charles T. and John L. Mather, Wilfred H. Robertson, J. Hunter Moore, R. Brognard Okie, Joseph W. Sharp, Jr., William B. and Charles Wheeler and Aubrey Huston.

A Bit of Verse

Along the Perkiomen

There many an autumn holiday,
Mid scenes of rustic beauty,
O'erhanging trees their tints display,
Jack Frost has done his duty.
Each hidden turn brings into view
More likely spots to try,
Each waving ruffle something new,
Where bass reach for the fly.
There walled in by the shaly cliffs,
With scarce a whisper spoken,
Have we in silence deep enjoyed,
Along the Perkiomen.

Nearby the patient farmers toil,
'Tween rows of waving corn,
Nor let the harvest hours spoil,
But see each frosty morn.
Here once along its rocky shores
The dusky Red Man roamed
In search of food, or fowl, or fish,
To cheer his transient home.
"Pak-ihmo-mink" he called the flow,*
For this he meant as token,
"The place where wild cranberries grow."
Along the Perkiomen.

For many miles down from the North,
Its wide course takes its way,
Montgomery County's fairest vale,
You'll hear most travelers say.
Here meet the hemlock and the oak,
The forest interwoven,
No tangled growth the woodlands choke
Along the Perkiomen.

The fish hawk builds his lofty perch
Above its rippling gleam,
Or darts like silver flame in search
Of minnows in the stream.
He is not the lone fisher there,
For stands the sturdy yeoman,
And casts his lure to the bass
Along the Perkiomen.

The cliffs resound the small-mouths' splash,
As he breaks safe and free;
He loves his captors' hopes to dash
While he turns tail to flee.
Below the falls at Indian Head,
Our hopes have oft been broken,
But other lures are there instead
Along the Perkiomen.

Ofttimes a bass his freedom owes
To fishermen as we,
Who stand and marvel as one does
At Nature's scenery.

Narberth Shutout by Paoli Saturday

ing of the Big Three are the only luminary and creditable points which carried the Westerners through to victory.

Not only were the champions warded off the scoring box in this game, but we might add that only once, in the fifth inning, did they get as far as third base. In this frame Hagey retired the side with the bases loaded after he had kept the Davismen in check with unusual ease. For the entire game Narberth placed twelve men on the sacks and at the termination of the exhibition ten players had been left stranded on the lanes. Two twin retirements by Verna, Henry and Potter swept the other two off the premises.

Narberth's only chance came in the fifth when they put three men on base only to follow the customary routine of the past month. After Kearney had been expunged by Verna's rapid relay to Potter, Reynolds arched a looper over second base. On Curwin's dingy rap which remained in the infield, a rally was in the making. Potter retrieved Burns' ground drive along the right field line and forced him, unassisted, Reynolds and Curwin moving up on the put out. Humphries was passed to load the bases and the Narberth fans rejoiced in the possibility of avoiding a shut-out. The frenzied shouts of the fans subsided when they saw Fleck raise a fly to centre field and the side went out.

The only Borough man who was what may be termed a nemesis to the foe, was Joe McEntee. Joe slapped a single to left wing in his initial appearance for his only bingle of the day, walked twice, and they were not intentional, and, in the sixth raised a fly which was handled by Thompson in left field. To add to the depressions of this day, Vernie Fleck saw the end of his consecutive streak after having pounded the old cowhide for thirty-one straight games this year.

Chevrolet Truck First Automobile in St. Helena, Famous As Site of Napoleon's Exile and Burial Place

St. Helena, famous in history as the site of Napoleon's exile and burial place for twenty years, at last has an automobile.

Along with Bermuda and other insular territories, St. Helena has long barred the motor car. First intimation that the embargo had been lifted came in an unsolicited testimonial received by General Motors Export Company from the St. Helena Corp., Ltd., importers and exporters, who do a flourishing business on the island.

Excerpts from the letter state that "until the commencement of this year, mechanical transport was prohibited. It is now sanctioned, however, and we have imported the first motor lorry that the island has seen.

"For the purpose of collecting raw material from our plantations, and the cartage of prepared hemp from the mills to the wharf, we have had to maintain a large amount of animal transport which in this island is very expensive and allows no comparison with the cost of transport by mechanical means. Consequently, directly legislation permitted, we imported a motor lorry as mentioned, and before doing so we considered the vehicle which would in our opinion be the most suitable. Of a large number of vehicles offered, we concluded that for the price your Chevrolet 30 cwt. I. Q. model was the most suitable, and this is the vehicle we imported from England and which today is the pioneer of commercial transport in St. Helena."

Lifting of the ban on motorized transportation in St. Helena will mean another new outlet for American cars in the overseas market, although a circumscribed market. While St. Helena is twice the size of Manhattan, its population numbers only a few thousand people, and the roads now open to traffic are little more than animal trails. Steep grades and hairpin bends abound.

Wedded Bliss Increases in County, Figures Indicate

Marriages in Montgomery County are on the upward trend despite the fact that many persons claim this sacred institution is losing ground in modern days. Comparisons between the marriages performed in the county in 1928 and 1929 show that there were 358 more couples united last year than in 1928 when 1581 couples went to the altar. The figures, which also contain divorce statistics, were compiled in Harrisburg and released this morning.

The year past 1930 brides and bridegrooms said the solemn "I do" words in the district, while 162 couples, or at least one side of that number, decided to call marriage a failure and obtained a divorce. There were 135 divorces granted in 1928.

Although the divorces have increased twenty-seven in a year's time this growth was only normal as a comparison with the marriages performed will clearly show. During the last year one couple to every twelve that were united in wedlock had their bonds severed, while two years ago there was one disappointed couple to every eleven happily married ones. These ratios seem to indicate that divorces are losing ground in the county while marriages are forging ahead.

The total of marriages in the State last year was 70,606, an increase of 2966 over 1928, and the divorces in the State last year were 7868, a decrease of 178 from the preceding year. The total of marriages for 1928 was 67,640 and the total of divorces that year 8046.

with only two miles of level road on the entire island, the letter states. A start has been made by the government toward betterment of the highways, however.

After their Chevrolet truck had demonstrated unusual economies over animal transportation, the St. Helena Corp., foreseeing the possibilities of mechanical transportation, asked to be considered for the dealer franchise for that faraway territory.

Business Establishments to Benefit by rate reduction

Main Line merchants and other commercial electric users will be the beneficiaries of rate reductions just announced by the Philadelphia Electric Company, effective September 1. The decision means that reductions in commercial lighting rates recently announced as applicable to the County of Philadelphia will be extended to the suburban area as well, giving to the entire city and suburban territory identical rates for this class of service.

According to the new schedule, customers in this group will pay 7½ cents per kilowatt hour for the first 48 hours' use of load; 6 cents for the next 48 hours' use, and 2½ cents for all in excess of 96 hours use of the load or demand. This change will affect the first and third blocks, where the rates are now 9 cents and 3 cents, respectively. It will result in a saving of 1½ cents per kilowatt hour in the first block of 48 hours' use of load and a saving of one-half cent per kilowatt hour to those customers whose use of load exceeds 96 hours.

VACUUM CHARTS

SHOW PROPER LUBRICATION FOR EVERY CAR AND PART

THERE'S a lot more to lubricating a car than just slapping some grease on a few parts. The greasing job that's right for one car wouldn't suit every other car.

Take for example the water pump. Mobiloil engineers have developed a special water-proof grease for this mechanism. The springs are oiled with special spring-oil delivered under pressure that seeps into every crevice. The correct lubricant is used for every part of your car.

To make sure these oils and greases are used to best advantage, the Mobilgas service stations have the most modern equipment. Our hand-picked corps of attendants are thoroughly drilled in the use of this equipment, and they have charts prepared by Mobiloil engineers and by the motor car builders to follow for every make of car.

Our gasoline, Mobilgas, is modernized by Vacuum's process of distillation for the car you drive today.

The actual work of lubricating your car is done in tiled, well-lighted pits, kept clean enough to be safe even for summer frocks. And the car is protected with soft covers on the doors, fenders, seats, and even the steering wheel and gear levers.

Drop by some day soon.

ABOVE—A special type of grease developed for differential box by Mobiloil engineers. Modern equipment to apply it.

LEFT—No grease spots left after a lubrication job in Mobiloil service station pits. Covers protect every exposed part before a job is started.

VITAL SERVICE

These services increase your driving pleasure and your car's trade-in value

Greasing. Done in roomy, lighted pits by trained men equipped with the latest tools. Parts exposed during work protected by fitted covers. Eight different greases especially refined for specific types of duty and applied according to charts authorized by motor car builders.

Washing. Modern pressure equipment used by trained men working in glass enclosed, drained and daylighted wash racks. Hydraulic jacks raise cars to convenient levels for under-gear washing.

Polishing. Soft chamois, proper cloths and complete stocks of cleaners and polishes. Daylighted and closed rooms insure against dry polish missed through reflection of artificial light.

Tightening. Thoroughly trained men with special tools working from authorized charts remove all the annoying squeaks and rattles that worry the driver and deteriorate the car.

'Man,' Sermon Topic

"Man" is the subject of the lesson-sermon to be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, Sunday, September 7. The Golden Text is, "Thou hast dealt well with Thy servant, O Lord, according unto Thy word. Thy hands have made me and fashioned me" (Psalms 119:65, 73).

Among the citations from the Bible is the following: "Though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day" (II Corinthians 4:16).

The lesson-sermon also includes passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, one of which reads: "The material body and mind are temporal, but the real man is spiritual and eternal. The identity of the real man is not lost, but found through this explanation; for the conscious infinitude of existence and of all identity is thereby discerned and remains unchanged" (p. 302).

found keener opposition than at any other time since the formation of the Main Line League twenty years ago. During the past nineteen years the borough champions have proved beyond a doubt their claim to the sovereignty of the league in view of their consistent repetitions in copping the gonfalon, which they brought home on thirteen different occasions. Should the Davismen clinch the pennant this year, it will not only mark the twentieth on record, but will also entitle the Narberth boys with the third straight championship, a feature unequalled by any other club in this league.

In the inaugural event on Monday morning, the Berwyn Club, the only foe man whom the Davismen have defeated during the second half, reversed the count on the champions by winning a well and hard-fought victory, five runs to three. A last-ditch spurt, perhaps one unsurpassed due to its importance at this critical stage of the race, failed to overcome the overwhelming lead of the visitors. "Bingo" Wagner, the Berwyn pitching ace, found Lady Luck close at his side in the final frame when after having walked three borough men in a row he managed to force the side with their lead still intact.

Howard Graham, the little man of the big base, sustained his ninth setback of the year which gives him one more defeat for the season than he has to show for victories, which are marked at eight. Charley Townsend, of Princeton University, registered his second win for the year out of three starts in the afternoon game.

Narberth tabbed a run in the first frame and two in the third out of the gross number of six hits and added another bingle in the unproductive fourth inning. After that Wagner refused to issue another single hit to the champions, maintaining his adamant position throughout the game. The Doyle Nursery boys outhit the league leaders by two blows, officially recorded at nine safeties. Walter Heckle, brother of Narberth's eminent outfielder, Merrill, dispatched a long double-crack into centre-field in the opening stanza and counted off brother Merrill's single to port.

Four successive hits in the third netted the boroughites two runs when Burns and Humphries rocked vicious singles to the outfield and scored on a deep single to right-field by Merrill Heckle. McEntee's rap to left-field was unbeneficial to the local cause and the side went out never to score again.

With the aid of six blunders, Berwyn scored the bulk of their runs when they sent two men over in the third and forged to the front by tallying another pair in the fifth. Kelly singled to right-field and moved up on Wagner's sacrifice bunt. On Baker's sacrificial boot Kelly went to third and counted off McMonigle's one-base ply to right-field. Doyle sent in Joe with a well-placed single to left.

Two doubles, one by DeSchula after McCohan had previously clouted his to the highway in left-field, augmented Berwyn's lead to five runs, which turned out to be the final scoring of the morning.

After plugging along for five weary innings without an additional hit, the Davismen staged a pell-mell spurt in the finale. Blessing was appointed to bat for Mulligan, and struck out. Gilfillan rested while Kearney replaced him at the disc, but he also accounted for an out by lofting to port. But when Rubincam was nominated to replace Graham, the actual rally began. Wagner issued enough balls to walk the Rube and Curwin emulated the act as did Walter Heckle to jam the pathways. Burns, usually dependable in the pinches, clubbed an easy comber to Baker, who in his excitement, fumbled the pellet awhile, but recovered it in sufficient time to force Mickey at first despite Manager Davis' protest that he was safe.

The less said of the post-meridian engagement the less embarrassment we bestow upon Manager Sullivan's runners-up in the second-half series. Following an unexpected showing by the Dunkirk Club in the second half of the series by pressing the Paoli Club with incredulous competition, the champions of the borough went out for some batting practice in preparation of the coming titular play-off due to start on September 13 with Paoli.

Having set a league record of twenty-one hits against the easy Main Line Tigers on August 6, the Davismen took desperate measures in picking on this strong outfit to better the record by two hits, giving them twenty-three bingles for the encounter. The eight hits made during the fourth round of conflict, at which time the line-up batted around, were the gigantic tallies that raised the hitting mark considerably for this fray.

Merrill Heckle had a gala day at bat, getting four singles out of four official times at bat. On two other occasions Merrill was struck by wild throws by Smithgal. Curwin was the next best for the borough clan by assailing the withering Smithgal for three singles for an average at bat of .750, while Humphries trailed with .500. Mickey Burns, Vernie Fleck and Walter Heckle each had three nicks in this game, but their numerous times at bat lowers their hitting figure in comparison with the services rendered by brother Heckle and Johnny Curwin. Every man of the Narberth cast hit freely, Kearney and Townsend being the weakest at bat with only a hit apiece. Joe McEntee and Humphries were the leading runmakers as each player sent in three of the twelve points tallied for the afternoon.

In the fourth inning Dunkirk came through with a lone run, which was made possible by means of a Narberth blunder. Excluding this bit of erroneous fielding, which permitted the tabbing of an unearned run, the foe men never entered the scoring column for the rest of the day.

Narberth's fecund innings were the third and fourth when they sent in five runs in each frame, as they totaled twelve hits for the pair of stanzas.

This game was the fiftieth played by the Narberth Club so far this season, of which twenty-nine have been victories, twenty defeats and one a tie. This gives them an average of .580. In independent ball alone they have won twenty-one out of thirty-three contests, one being the tie with Brookline. For league games Narberth has won eight of the seventeen debuts for a return of .471, or two out of eight for the last half.

You will not find incongruous mixtures of styles in Curtis Woodwork—each design is true to the period which it is intended to represent.

"Authenticity" or "Correctness of Design" cannot be neglected in building or remodeling a home, if beauty is desired.

If the woodwork you use is authentic, every piece that goes into the house will add to the pleasing effect of the whole—if not, the design of the house and the design of the woodwork will not harmonize, with the result that the final effect will be unpleasing, if not, indeed, grotesque.

When building or remodeling your home, beautify it with CURTIS WOODWORK.

JOHN J. SCHEMBS

John J. Schembs, father of Dr. John J. Schembs, Jr., of Windsor and Grayling Avenues, Narberth, died last Friday at his home in Ventnor, N. J., at the age of 67. Solemn High Requiem Mass was held at St. James Church Ventnor, on Tuesday with interment in the Pleasantville Cemetery. He is survived by his wife, Emily M.
Schembs; Dr. Schembs, of Narberth, another son and two daughters.

DANIEL KRAMER

Daniel Kramer, known and liked by residents of this section for over thirty years, died August 21 at his home, 468 Brookhurst Avenue, Narberth, at the age of 52. He is survived by his widow and a son, George. Funeral services were held August 25 at his home, and interment was made at Perkasi, Pa.
his home town.

Mr. Kramer, who was known as
"Dan" by everyone, drove for the Bala Market for the past seven years, and has made meat and grocery deliveries to homes in this vicinity since 1897.

Fleck, Narberth Veteran, Leads Team in Batting

Vernie Fleck, Narberth's veteran of the diamond, boasts the hitting lead of the Narberth Ball Club as the season rapidly comes to a close. For games played up until Labor Day Vernie shows an average for the second half of .475, to which figure he receded after holding a more decisive pace only a week ago at .511.

Vernie Fleck's average for the whole season to date is .4775, his record for the first-half season, at which time he was runner-up for the lead, being .470.
The fluctuations of the records for these players now hinges upon Saturday's games and the subsequent contests for the championship of the Main Line League.

Garage Changes Hands

deavor to build up the service for the residents of that part of Narberth.

Young People's Bible Class Preparing For Fall Activity

The Young People's Class of the Narberth Presbyterian Church is making plans to get back to full activity with the very first Sunday in September, and has a "headline" attraction for this Sunday morning as the following note, mailed to each member of the class, will indicate.

Any young man or woman—married or single—who may be looking for pleasant company, good fellowship, and interesting Bible lessons, may consider this a personal invitation to visit the class at 10 o'clock Sunday morning.

Dear Bill:

We hope you had a good vacation.
Now let's go on with our young people's class with renewed interest. Let's aim for a 100 per cent. attendance and bring some new members this very Sunday. Visitors welcome, too!

We shall talk over plans for a picnic
this month. And SPECIAL NOTE —come to meet some distinguished visitors. Mr. and Mrs. Adams with one of their boys; Mr. Noah, and Father Abraham with two of his wives and his nephew Lot, will be with the class.
Renew your interest in these friends and learn something from their lives.
Let's pack our little upper room.
See you Sunday!

How Loud

Radio Editor
"Our Town"
Narberth, Penna.
Dear Sir:

My husband has just given me a beautiful radio as a birthday present, and while I know all about getting the different stations I am puzzled about one thing: How loud should I play it?
Won't you please give me your expert opinion?

Yours gratefully,
A. B. C.

Dear Madam:

Your question is fair, timely, and important, and I am happy to be able to give you the correct answer. After you have turned on your radio and found your station, go across the street to your neighbors' sidewalk—or, if you prefer, go to the sidewalk of your neighbors to the right or to the left of you, and listen. If you can hear your radio you may rest assured that you are playing it too loud.

While the warm weather continues it would not, of course, be advisable to close your doors and windows, for it is much more healthful to keep the doors and windows open, although I think it would help some to close the door or window nearest the loud speaker. However, the correct and scientific thing to do is to tone down your radio, and that, fortunately, is a very simple and very easy thing to do.
Apply the thumb and index finger of your right hand—or the thumb and index finger of your left hand, if you happen to be so gifted—to the volume control and turn sharply to the left.
Then make another brief visit to any one of your neighbors' sidewalks, and if you can still hear your radio you will know that you are still playing it too loud. Return to your home promptly and give the volume control another turn to the left. Two such turns ought to bring your radio well under control and give you just about the right amount of volume for your own use and pleasure.

If my recollection serves me correctly the U. S. Supreme Court recently decided that the right to own and operate a radio set does not include the right to operate a broadcasting station, and that any person, persons, firm or corporation desiring to establish or operate a broadcasting station must first file an application with the Federal Radio Commission, and the said applicant is not permitted, under a heavy penalty, to go on the air in any shape, manner or form until the Commission has granted the said applicant a regular radio broadcasting license.

Respectfully, and, I trust,

Helpfully yours,
The Radio Editor.

Norristown Loses to Narberth by One Run

sixth, after having wasted seven hefty hits, they entered the scoring column, a bit of strategy the Norristown clan could not emulate. Mulligan started the sixth stanza by working Love for a pass and moved up on Gilfillan's unintentional sacrifice bunt. As the ball came speeding over the plate, Gilfillan attempted to step out of the path of the wild-coming throw, and as he stepped away the ball struck his bat and rebounded for a sacrificial boot. Mulligan took second on the scratch offering. Humphries, the forty-year-old veteran of the Narberth diamond, then approached the pentagon and connected with a robust swat, sending the pellet far out into right-field, giving Mulligan access to the scoring station with little difficulty. Young then hit into a double-play, Bonkoski to Tarlecki to Francis.

In the final stanza the Davismen tried to make the score more decisive and insure victory, but failed to tally with the bases packed.

Graham walked, but was caught stealing the keystone. Kearney rapped his second hit of the night, but was forced by Mulligan's bid for a hit. On Bonkoski's miscue of Gilfillan's liner Narberth prepared for more scoring of runs for Humphries garnered a free ticket to first to load the bases. Young lifted an aerial towards the pitcher's box, which was intercepted by Francis for the third and final out.

Joe McEntee had a hit in each of his three appearances before the fans, while Gilfillan and Humphries each hit for an average of .667.

The marriage of Miss Betty Henry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Henry, of Meeting House Lane, Narberth, and Mr. Frank McEnanen, son of Mrs. Margaret McEnanen, of West Philadelphia, took place quietly yesterday in Narberth.

Miss Mibbs Kocher, of Altoona, was the bride's only attendant. Mr. Frank J. Donahue, of Germantown, acted as best man.

A small dinner for the immediate families followed the ceremony. When the couple have returned from their wedding trip, they will live in West Philadelphia.

Cardinals Win Twice

The Cardinals, newly crowned kings of the Narberth Playground League, took two games from the St. Lawrence Altar Boys by scores of 16-to-9 and 12-to-2. The game played at home was featured by two double plays by the Cardinals, Gilroy to Strup to Kane. In the return game at Llanerch, Captain Mickey Wright, Kane and Burgess led the batting for the Cardinals while Donnelly did his share for the Llanerch team.

Cardinals Win

The Cardinals defeated the St. Lawrence A. B. last Friday 12 to 2, scoring 7 runs in the second inning when the visitors' pitcher lost control. Outstanding for the Cardinals were Bob Wright, Ed Burgess, Paul Kane, Dave Stout and Bob Peterson. Umpires: Ted Boley and E. Wright.
